- (6) ‘Awf ibn Malik radiyallahu ta'ala 'anhu narrates that Rasulullah sallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said:

“There are some people of Allah whom Allah selects so that they may remove difficulties from the creation. People in a bad state will come to them for their needs. Such people are free from the punishment of Allah”.<sup>11</sup>

- (12) Anas radiyallahu ta'ala 'anhu narrates that Rasulullah sallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said:

“When Allah wishes to do good with a person, He makes the person towards whom people turn for their needs”.<sup>12</sup>

- (13) ‘Abdullah ibn Mas’ud radiyallahu ta'ala 'anhu narrates that Rasulullah sallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said:

“There are 300 friends of Allah in the creation whose hearts are like that of Prophet Adam ‘alaihi salam. There are 40 whose hearts are similar to the heart of Musa ‘alaihi salam and 7 whose hearts are similar to the heart of Ibrahim ‘alaihi salam. There are 5 whose hearts are like that of Jibra’il and 3 whose hearts are like that of Mika’il and one whose heart is like the heart of Israfil. When he (whose heart is like Israfil) dies, then one of the three whose heart is like Mika’il replaces him and one of the five (whose hearts are like Jibra’il) replaces him. One of the seven replaces one of the five, one of the forty replaces one of the seven and one of the three-hundred replaces one of the forty and a normal Muslim replaces one of the three-hundred. It is due to these 356 awliya that creation are given life and killed, due to them rain falls, vegetation grows and difficulties are removed”.<sup>13</sup>
